Life Stories from the Mountains

101+ WOMAN

20.12.2020
until 5.4.2021

Although various exhibitions have been realised over the past few years featuring the mountains as a main theme, women's contributions and perspectives have been mostly only included on the fringes. Through the present exhibition at the Gelbe Haus we want to change this situation. We are interested in the personal experiences and individual views of various women from all generations towards life in the mountains. To achieve this end, the 101 women selected to be portrayed range, e.g., from a young musician to an almost one-hundred-year-old photographer, from a teenage climber to an eighty-year-old hotelier, or from a young scientist to an experienced politician. Our winter exhibition 2020/2021 in the Gelbe Haus in Flims is dedicated to all of them. While the focus is on women from Graubünden, female mountaineers, artists, and researchers from other parts of the Swiss Alps are also presented.
